

Twenty-Four Hours

11 0 1

Chapter 1 by ABIGAIL TEITELBAUM

So, where should I start? There is a group of people that watch over the Earth—well, not just a group. Each member controls a different aspect of nature. There are twelve of them in total. Water, fire, life, wind, gravity, stone, weather, ice, time, light, even the celestials. But perhaps the most important is death.

People like me are the ones they have chosen to train and tend to the Earth after they're gone. They take on two people to train. We are called the Hours.

Recently, there has been a call from a member of Time to see who could possess all of these powers. While the people training is are fine with this, it only means that we will all have to fight each other.

The power of all the world in your hands, just after you stab with your knife. Tell me, is that going too far?

Or would you risk it, too?
